Rama Varmha Tampuran (Secretary to Government): Sir, I shall move the next 9 items together. They are all under "9-Stamps" and all these are proposed to be met by transfers. All these refer to the last year and they are all items which cannot be anticipated during the course of the last year. The exact amount of some of these expenses came to be known only at the beginning of this year and thorefore, just to ratify the transfers, the Council's sanction is necessary. Rs. 186 is on account of dearness allowance. Rs. 552 is on account of the printing bill from the Press to the Stamps Department. Rs. 369 is on account of stamps purchased for working the Stamp Office. Rs. 552, 206, 292, 620, 49 and 31 are all required to make refunds to parties which have to be done under the Rules. I request that these transfers may kindly be allowed.
